Comment	This liqueur is made from the knobs and juice of Japanese Onshu mandarins, and is a must for mandarin orange lovers. It has a very juicy flavor, as if the pulp and juice were melting together in the mouth. Adding a small amount of soda gives it a refreshing taste and makes it even more delicious. It also enhances the sweet and sour taste when drunk with meat dishes such as yakiniku and yakitori. Add it to draft beer to enjoy it as a fruity beer cocktail. We hope you enjoy a special moment with this liqueur rich in the aroma of mandarin oranges.
